

Conduct & Daily Expectations

Being a part of the OHS ASB is a privilege. As an ASB student you will be held to the highest standard of behavior while serving as a role-model for you peers both on and off campus, during and outside of school events.

Failing to meet the expectations outlined in this document or agreed upon in class, may result in probation or your removal from ASB Leadership. In addition to abiding by the school rules specified in the Student Handbook, the following expectations apply.

Respect

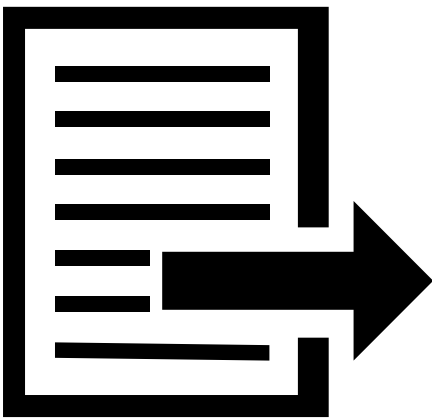

- Be courteous to all students, teachers, school administrators, and staff
- Listen attentively, maintain an open-mind, and do not waste anybody's time
- Be devoted to working through conflict when it arises

Represent

- Be positive and committed to the service of others
- Strive to do your best and follow-through
- Be appropriate and do the right thing, even when no one is watching
- Be actively involved in ASB activities, events, and daily life

Responsible

- Be a reliable and trustworthy ASB member that is punctual
- Maintain a 3.0 GPA or higher on all progress and report cards.
- Be exceptional in citizenship. Even 1 "N" or "U" in citizenship results in probation or removal.

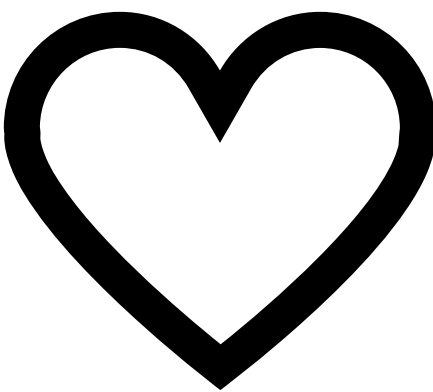

Activity Logs

Each week students will be required to keep an activity log of all work put into ASB for the week. Points will be given based on the nature of the activity.

At the end of each quarter points will be entered into the grade book for a score out of 100.

Activity logs must be turned in using the provided ASB folder. They are due on Friday within the first 5 minutes of class. If there is no school Friday, logs are due Thursday.

Community Service

Each quarter students are required to complete 4 hours of community service. Community Service must be documented on the correct form with the addition of a Google Classroom Assignment.

- Due dates:
- Summer Hours (6): August 17
 - Q1 Hours (4): October 10
 - Q2 Hours (4): December 18
 - Q3 Hours (4): March 13
 - Q4 Hours (4): May 8

Commitment

I am proud to be a member of the Orchard Hills School Associated Student Body. While in leadership I will maintain the highest standards of behavior, serve as a role-model for my peers both on and off campus, during and outside of school events, and actively find ways to promote the culture of our school while serving the student body.

If for any reason I fail to meet or exceed the expectations outlined in this document or described in class I know there will be consequences. I know that serious violations may result in my removal from ASB.

Please keep the ASB Expectations and Syllabus in your notebook to reference throughout the year.
